Rabbi Meyers' Message

They tried to kill us. We survived. Let's eat.

On Purim, Haman tried to kill us. We survived, we eat Hamantashan.

On Pesach, Pharaoh tried to kill us, we survived. We eat Matzah.

Similar stories, similar outcomes. The only difference seemingly being the food we eat.

Indeed, Purim and Pesach stand as twin pillars of commemoration and celebration, each marking a miraculous deliverance from the brink of despair. Yet, while both holidays share the common theme of salvation, they diverge in their focus, highlighting distinct facets of the Jewish experience.

Purim, with its jubilant festivities and raucous revelry, commemorates the miraculous salvation of the Jewish people from the nefarious plot of Haman, the genocidal tyrant of ancient Persia. It is a tale primarily of physical deliverance, a testament to the providential hand of G-d that shielded our ancestors from imminent destruction.

In contrast, Pesach encompasses a broader narrative of liberation, encompassing both physical and spiritual redemption. According to the teachings of our sages, the Jewish people were not only enslaved in body but also in spirit during their sojourn in Egypt. They were on the brink of

President's Perspective

We seem to have made it through winter, maybe even more than once this season. The dual leap year continues, February with 1 extra day, and we with our 1 extra Adar. This means, of course, we are looking forward to the joy that is Adar and the Purim celebration, followed a scant month later by our Festival of Freedom, Passover.

I hope everyone was able to get a glimpse at our booth in the Savitsky Virtual Fair. We have excitement with the change of season (whenever it actually settles on a new season), we have excitement with our holidays, and we have the excitement of our search for a new location.

We have the Rabbi to thank for our new tradition of Oneg Shabbat rotating among homes in the area, mostly on those early winter Friday Nights. We'll see if we keep that up in the summer, or come back to it when the dark returns.

If ever in doubt about a schedule or if there is an event, check out our newly redesigned website!

See you in Shul!

Your presence is greatly needed: please attend

Lincolnwood Jewish Congregation A G Beth Israel, our Shul, has always maintained two daily minyanim for Shacharit and for Mincha/Maariv (or just Maariv during the winter months). It continues to be difficult to guarantee that 10 men will be present for davening. Your help is urgently needed to ensure that a full minyan is present for everyone, especially those who have Yahrzeit or are in their year of mourning. Please attend whenever you are able.

assimilation, perilously close to losing their distinct identity and heritage. Thus, Pesach represents not only a physical emancipation from bondage but also a spiritual awakening, a reaffirmation of our covenantal relationship with the Almighty.

In the challenging history of our people, the miracles of Purim and Pesach have served as beacons of hope, guiding us through the tumultuous currents of time.

Indeed, the words of our sages ring true: – בכל דור ודור עומדים עלינו לכלותינו in every generation, there are different forces at play who rise up against us. There have been generations in which we needed a Purim-esque physical salvation, and generations when we needed a Pesach-esque spiritual salvation.

Rarely did the two overlap.

However, in our current generation, beset by myriad challenges and threats, the need for both a Purim and Pesach salvation is more pressing than ever before.

Today, we find ourselves confronted by enemies who seek our destruction, both near and far. From the scourge of anti-semitic violence to the existential threats facing our brethren in Israel, the specter of persecution looms large on the horizon. In the face of such adversity, we invoke the spirit of Purim, turning to G-d in prayer for deliverance from those who seek to harm us.

Yet, the challenges we face extend beyond the realm of physical danger. Assailed by forces of assimilation and apathy, our community grapples with a crisis of identity and continuity. The erosion of Jewish values and the rise of internal discord threaten to undermine the very fabric of our collective existence. The painful images of fellow Jews protesting against Israel's right to exist are beyond words.

In our current generation we find a rare convergence of circumstances; in need of both the miracle of Purim and the redemption of Pesach.

So this year as we gather with family and friends to celebrate these sacred holidays, let us connect with the spiritual power and potential embedded within the sanctity of these calendric days. Let us make them not just holidays, but Holy Days. Days of prayer to beseech the Almighty for salvation from our external foes and from the spiritual malaise that threatens to engulf us. May the dual miracles of Purim and Pesach serve as a beacon of hope in our time of need, guiding us towards a future filled with promise and redemption. And may our prayers for salvation be answered swiftly and mercifully, ushering in an era of peace and prosperity for all.

Pesach Schedule 2024

Mechirat Chametz- Selling the Chametz

One is not allowed to eat, own, or derive pleasure from their chametz during Pesach. Therefore, one must arrange to have their chametz sold by the Rabbi prior to Thursday, April 18. All sold Chametz will be purchased back one hour after Pesach is over. See the Mechirat Chametz form for more details regarding this procedure.

Bedikat Chametz/Search for Chametz

Bedikat Chametz, the search for chametz, takes place on Sunday night, April 21 after 7:40 pm. Before the search, the blessing of "Al Biur Chametz" is recited. After the search, Kol Chamira (nullification declaration, for unidentified chametz) is recited. Those who are traveling or are otherwise unable to do the search that night, should do so (without a bracha) on the last night they will be present in their home.

Ta'anit Bechorim/The Fast of the Firstborn

Firstborn males, bechorim, are required to fast on Erev Pesach in commemoration of the final plague, Makas Bechorot, when G-d spared the life of every first-born Jew. This year the fast will be observed on Monday, April 22. As in all years, the fast can be circumvented by participation in a Siyum, which will be held in the synagogue, following Shacharit at 7am.

Sof Zman Achilat Chametz/Latest time to eat Chametz

One must finish eating all Chametz by 10:30am on Monday morning, April 22.

Bi'ur Chametz - Burning/Destroying of the Chametz

The Biur Chametz procedure this year is on Monday morning (April 22) before 11:40am. One should burn the Chametz they found during the prior night's Bedika, as well as any other Chametz that they will not be selling prior to Pesach. If one does not have access or the ability to burn one's chametz, one may crumble it and flush it down the toilet. Once one has disposed of the last of the Chametz in their possession they should then recite the Kol Chamira (nullification of the Chametz), also before 11:35am.

The Seder Night 1- Monday, April 22

Yom Tov candle lighting time is at 7:20pm. One should not make Kiddush and begin the Seder before nightfall.

The Seder Night 2- Tuesday, April 23

One must make sure to wait until the first day of Yom Tov is over before prepping any of the food or lighting the candles for the second day of Yom Tov. This year, the earliest time for such activity is 8:25pm. The second night of Pesach is the first day of Sefirat HaOmer.

Motza'ai Yom Tov - End of First Days of Yom Tov

The first days of Yom Tov ends at 8:25pm. Havdalah is recited without Besamim (spices) or Aish (fire).

Erev Shabbat Chol HaMoed (Fifth night of Pesach)

Candle lighting is at 7:25pm. Kiddush on Friday night is a regular Shabbat Kiddush. We do not make Havdalah for Yom Tov.

Motza'ai Shabbat Chol HaMoed (Sixth night of Pesach)

Shabbat concludes at 8:30pm. Regular Havdalah for Motza'ai Shabbat is recited (including wine, spices and candle).

Yizkor Candle

It is customary for those who will be reciting Yizkor to have a Yizkor candle, representing the soul of their departed loved one, lit in their home for Yom Tov. If one is able to procure one, it is best to acquire a 48-hour Yizkor candle and light it on Erev Yom Tov, this year Sunday, April 28, before one kindles the Yom Tov candles.

Seventh night of Pesach

Yom Tov candle lighting time is 7:30pm.

Eighth night of Pesach

One must make sure to wait until day 7 of Yom Tov is over before prepping any of the food or lighting the candles for day 8 of Yom Tov. This year, the earliest time for such activity is 8:30pm.

Yizkor

We recite Yizkor in shul on the morning of day 8 of Pesach (Tuesday, April 30). Yizkor will be approximately between 10am-10:30am.

Motza'ai Pesach- Conclusion of Passover

Pesach concludes at 8:30pm on Tuesday, April 30. One may not eat the chametz that one sold until 9:40pm, when it has been legally bought back. Havdalah is recited without Besamim (spices) or Aish (fire).

If you have any questions regarding any Pesach preparations or any other questions Rabbi Meyers can be reached at rabbi@lvcagbi.org.

Off the Subject

A Jew took his Passover lunch to eat outside in the park. He sat down on a bench and began eating. Shortly thereafter a blind man came by and sat down next to him.

Feeling neighborly, the Jew offered a sheet of matzoh to the blind man.

The blind man ran his fingers over the matzoh for a minute, and exclaimed, "Who wrote this?"

Chaim and Yankel, two of Chelm’s “less bright” residents are trying to measure a telephone pole. They keep trying to climb it and keep sliding down. Along comes this really big, muscle bound man from a nearby town and says, "Hey, what are you guys doing?"

Chaim and Yankel say, "We're trying to measure the height of this pole."

The strong man wraps his arms around the pole, pulls it out of the ground, lays it down and measures it. Then he picks it up, puts it back in the ground, says "40 feet" and walks away.

Chaim then turns to Yankel and says, "What a shlamazel - we wanted the height, not the length."
